Consent for Background Check

In order to be considered for employment with the Illinois Great Rivers Conference of the United Methodist Church as an employee or contractor, or in order to be a volunteer in any program sponsored by the Illinois Great Rivers Conference, a criminal background check, which includes a check of the National Registry of Sexual Predators, is required.

Your Social Security Number is required in order for the background check to be completed.

Depending on the job description or volunteer activity, a driver's license background check may be required. If this is the case, your driver's license number must be provided.

Please sign and fill out the information below. Return this completed and signed form to the address listed above.
